

Vancouver NAACP Legal Redress Committee

Complaint Form

naacpvancouverwa.org/legal-redress

Your Civil Rights Matter!

Have you encountered racial discrimination or bias where you live, work, play, or attend school in Clark County, Washington? The Vancouver NAACP Branch 1139 Legal Redress Committee (LRC) does not provide legal advice or legal representation but may investigate your complaint, seek to help resolve the issue, or help refer you to other resources. To file a complaint with the LRC, please complete this form and email it to legalredress@naacpvancouverwa.org or postal-mail it to ATTN: Legal Redress Committee, Vancouver NAACP Branch 1139, P.O. Box 1903, Vancouver, WA 98668-1903. After receipt and review of your complaint, the LRC will follow up with you.

Name & Contact Information (postal address, email address, telephone number)

Description of the Acts or Events You Believe Were Racially Discriminatory or Bias-Related (including those allegedly involved, times, dates, and locations and witness names and contact information as applicable – adding pages as needed)

Description of the Injury You Believe You Suffered (if applicable)

Description of the Assistance You're Seeking From the Vancouver NAACP Legal Redress Committee

Description of the Remedies You're Seeking in This Matter

Actions Taken Thus Far

In this matter, have you:

- Filed a complaint with any governmental agency? Yes___ No___ If yes, with which agency?

- Contacted or filed a complaint with the applicable personnel office, if employment-related?
Yes___ No___

- Filed a grievance with your union, if applicable? Yes___ No___

- Retained an attorney? Yes___ No___

Attorney name, firm, contact information:

- Filed a lawsuit? Yes___ No___

Attestation

I am seeking assistance from Vancouver NAACP Branch 1139, affirm that the information I've provided in connection with seeking such help is true to the best of my knowledge, authorize the branch and its officers and committee members to access information, documents, and people relevant to my complaint and hold the branch and its officers and committee members harmless for any damages that may arise from their good-faith handling of my complaint.

Signature & Date